Technical administrator

The following system settings are available to users with technical administrator privileges:

- manage user accounts,
- view the results of the Web-client operations, e.g. user action reports,
- view the results of the completed background tasks of the server.

See more in the Administration section.